The Youth Fair is Alive and Well and Growing!

San Jose, CA - The annual Santa Clara County Youth Fair is set to fill part of the first week in August with everything a good county fair is suppose to be, albeit on a smaller scale. But that too makes this a must destination for families looking for an outing without spending a fortune.

Fair manager Delana Romero explained “In many ways refocusing on youth has made this the perfect fair for the times. We are free and very family oriented.” The Fair promises carnival rides, animals, fair food, local community entertainment, and the chance to acknowledge the best aspects of youth and their involvement with agriculture. Romero summed it up “It all comes down to just two words, free and fun. Free admission and even free parking make the Fair a perfect match for the times.”

In stark contrast to the perception of a fair in decline, the Youth Fair has seen almost a tripling in the number of vendors in just the past two years, with 50 percent more than last year. Butler Amusements is bringing twice as many rides and yes that includes one of their signature Ferris Wheels. The Fair is grateful to the Clover Foundation for their growing support, another sign of a bright future.

It’s more fun than a family can have in a single day for a price any family can afford. The Santa Clara County Youth Fair will run August 5-8, 2010 from 10 AM to 8 PM each day. Complete fair details on line at www.thefair.org
